Keeping you safe from risks

What the Risk Management Policy means for you.

picture: a worker and a participant together	Harmony Care wants to keep you safe.
picture: a warning sign	A risk is something that could hurt you, a worker, or the service.
picture: a list with ticks	We look for risks. We write them down in a list called the Risk Register.
picture: a shield	We decide how to stop each risk, or make it smaller.

picture: a form and a pen	If something goes wrong, the worker tells the Principal straight away. The worker writes an Incident Report.
picture: an exit sign	We have a plan for emergencies, like a fire or a flood. It is called the Business Continuity Plan.
picture: an umbrella	We have insurance. Insurance pays if something bad happens.
picture: a speech bubble	You can tell us about a risk you see. You can also tell us if you are unhappy. This is called feedback.
picture: a calendar	Every year we ask you what we could do better.
